

a global vision for software testing

PRESS RELEASE

The future of Software Testing

February 2010, Exeter: TCL announce the winners of their 2010 Scholarship Programme

TCL are pleased to announce the award of scholarships for the academic year 2009/10 to a total of eleven students at Boston University (USA), the University of Exeter (UK) and UCL (UK).

Natali Ruchansky
Rufat Mammadyarov
Eduardo Rivas
Sophia van Valkenburg

Leong Mingjie
Sarah Collins
Lucy Boulton
David Corben

Daniel Martinez Oeckel
Victor Gonzalez Amarillo
Irina Ceapa

“Working with the Universities to run these scholarship programmes is a very enjoyable experience. This year sees another amazing group of outstanding and indeed inspirational people, who I have no doubt will go on to do great things in the future.”

Stewart Noakes
Chairman and Co-founder, TCL Group Ltd

(Pictured left with Lucy Boulton and David Corben, University of Exeter Sports Scholars)

The scholarship winners will also get the opportunity to apply for an international internship programme, which will take place over summer 2010. For the first time this programme will take place in Bangalore at the TCL offices.

When asked if she had given any thought to applying to the TCL internship, Sarah Collins, University of Exeter scholar replied:

“Yes! It appealed to me because it seems like a great opportunity to get some hands on experience to help my career that will be both challenging and exciting”

Pictured (left to right) Stewart Noakes (Chairman TCL Group Ltd, Daniel Geater (TCL advocate), Leong Mingjie and Sarah Collins (TCL scholars).

TCL is an independent Software Testing Consultancy, started at the beginning of 2000, with offices in the UK in London, Bristol and Exeter; in Burlington, Massachusetts in the US; and in Bangalore in India.

www.tcl-global.com

©TCL 2010